Houser Asks This Section To Stand Pat

United Effort Is Needed to Bring About Proper
Reapportionment

Southern California Deprived of One-Third of Rightful Representation

"Legislative and Congressional Reapportionment" was the subject of an interesting address delivered before the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club Tuesday by Frederick F. Houser, candidate for assemblyman from this district in the August primaries.

The speaker made a strong plea that when the next legislature convenes in 1931, the representatives from Southern California should stand as a unit in order to bring about proper congressional representation for California based upon the population at the present time rather than upon the census of 1920 which will be the basis upon which the assemblymen are elected this fall.

A committee has been formed, Mr. Houser stated, of the chairmen of the Southern California County Central Committees, for the purpose of working out a single plan to bring about the proper representation and it is essential that all state assemblymen and senators get together to endorse the proposition they agree upon.

Under the Bogg's Act, the speaker said, the reapportionment of state representatives will be automatically brought about as the population census is taken each ten years, since this reapportionment is and must be made by a commission appointed for that purpose. But since the reapportionment of representatives to the national congress is made by the state legislature, there is bound to be apportionment in favor of the northern part of the state so long as the present distribution of representation exists. This year, for instance, the legislators will be elected on the basis of the 1920 census which does not allow for the marvelous growth of population that has taken place in this part of the state, Mr. Houser stated.

Although the estimated population of the ten counties of Southern California for 1930 will be more than half the total population of the state, still the state legislature will have only 33 assemblymen out of 80 from the Southern California and only 10 senators out of 40 from this section of the state.

Since 1920 Southern California has had 26 assemblymen and 13 senators whereas we should have had 33 assemblymen and 17 senators, Mr. Houser declared. Los Angeles County has had but 15 assemblymen and 8 senators whereas it should have had 22 assemblymen and 12 senators. In other words, Mr. Houser said, "We have been deprived of one-third of our rightful representation."

Preceding this address which was given hearty applause by the audience, Lieutenant District Governor Thomas P. Logan of Ontario was present and pledged his wholehearted assistance in any manner possible to the work of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club. "Milt" Steinberger was given a warm welcome back after several weeks' absence due to illness. His height, bull beard and general appearance gave him a striking resemblance to Abraham Lincoln but he was unable to repeat the "Gettysburg Address."

Speaker Will Tell Vivid Experiences As Bolshevik Captive

"Six Weeks With the Bolsheviks" will be the topic Miss Martha Pohnert will develop in her vivid way from her personal experiences when, as the speaker of the day she comes before the Bethany Chapel Missionary Society next Tuesday, at the afternoon session of the all-day meeting. Miss Pohnert is from Inland, China.

Miss Helen King will have the Current Events hour in the morning. Miss Natalie Romans will lead the devotions in the afternoon. At noon, luncheon will be served by Mrs. Trimble, Mrs. Sea, Mrs. Ladd and Mrs. Olsen. Mrs. John Lowe, president, will preside at both sessions. All are cordially welcomed.

TOMATOES RIPEN IN SIERRA MADRE'S FAVORED GARDENS

While all records for low temperatures have been broken this winter in almost every section of the country, Sierra Madre has continued to bask in its customary sunshine and even climate.

Proof that this city is in the "frostless belt" is found in many instances, one of the principal ones being that even the delicate tomato plants have not been killed. On January 29, Mrs. G. A. Fiedler, 46 West Grandview, reports that she picked half a bushel of tomatoes from her garden and a nice bagful was brought to the News office last the editor doubt the veracity of such a remarkable statement.

Mary Ward's Verse Book Is Published

Another Local Writer Manifests Talent in Delightful Volume

"Vagrant Thoughts of Sentiment" is the alluring and very appropriate title chosen by Mary Ward of Sierra Madre for her booklet of captivating verse and droll philosophical utterances which has just been published by the Sierra Madre Press.

Advance sales indicate that this volume from the pen of a local writer will vie in popularity with the recent edition of "Personal Glimpses" by Lee Shippey, also of Sierra Madre.

"Mary Ward" is more commonly known as Mrs. Irving N. Ward and she resides at 109 East Grand View. She has been writing for only two or three years and although many of her poems have been published in nationally known journals, this is her first publication.

Such a commendable production from a new writer would seem surprising were it not generally known that the Irving N. Ward family is literally teeming with talent. Mr. Ward, himself, has painted some highly creditable portraits in his earlier days and his daughter, Jessie, has done some most attractive scenes.

Beatrice Ward, the youngest daughter, is now in New York City where she is well along the road to fame with her portraits, particularly of film and theatrical people. This paper recently called attention to the fact that she began this work at Hollywood for Grauman's Chinese Theater and then boldly ventured into the great metropolis which is the ultimate goal of all American artists.

Readers of Mrs. Ward's booklet will find it chock full of little quips and turns that constantly surprise and delight, manifesting real literary ability on the part of the author. Copies may be had at the Sierra Madre News office where they are on display.

Dr. Roman Describes the Trend in Italy

Says Nation Is On Verge of Revolution—League to Hold Control

Other Important Topics Are Discussed at Monthly Meeting Here

Dr. Frederick W. Roman at his regular Forum, conducted at the Woman's Club last Monday night, devoted the first hour of his lecture period to conditions in Italy.

A brief history was given by Dr. Roman of the country, with its 40,000,000 people, from the time of Thomas Aquinas and Dante; the birth of great literary efforts and church orders of the Middle Ages with the subsequent decline after the renaissance; to the present powerful dictatorship of Mussolini. He sketched briefly the development of independent republics under the rule of different princes, with the consequent rivalries; Italy's inability then as now to unite; the rise of the Bourbon rule in France and the resultant influence; Italy under the yoke of Napoleon; and of the restoration of power to the Pope in 1815, making him king over 108 acres.

Dr. Roman told of the shifting about since the seventeenth century under different alliances; of territory annexed in Africa in 1878; and finally of new territory gained from the World War and of the period of reconstruction after the war. Inefficient efforts for compulsory education as compared with the efficiency of other countries; the chaotic condition from which Mussolini arose, and the system of government under the present rule were pointed out.

A revolution now threatens, Dr. Roman declares, which, however, will be serious for Italy but not for the outside world. The League of Nations will be able to control the situation, he says.

A discussion of current events followed during the second hour of the Forum. Here the League of Nations at ten years of age was given some attention as to growth, support, committees, secretariat, parliament, aversion of war, refugees, problems of armament, public health, illicit traffic control, law codes, treaties, and other phases of its work.

Russia at the turning point, its agrarian situation and the five year plan with personal sacrifices entailed; the federal trade commission; and reconstruction of China, were also discussed.

Mrs. John H. Robertson, president of the Woman's Club, announces these lectures open to the public. As the lectures are very worth while and the price of admission small, it is the desire of the club to increase the membership of the Forum.

'Spartans' S. S. Class Form Comrade Club At Banquet Meeting

Last Wednesday, Jan. 29, sixteen boys met at an organization banquet held in the Congregational church to talk over the possibility of forming a Comrade Club. Paul Somers, secretary for boys in the Pasadena Y.M.C.A., presented the Comrade plan and spoke upon the possibilities and activities of such a club.

The idea is to provide for a midweek activity program for the Sunday School class, of which Mr. McKittrick is the leader. Overnight hikes, participation in Pasadena athletic leagues, discussion of problems, occasional speakers, skating parties and other plans were discussed.

Those present were Blake Manning, Frank Lichnog, Carl Young, Russel Van Duzer, Selwyn Myers, Bob and Ed Lalone, Gilbert Somner, John and Weston Senour, Percy Kortkamp, Bob Green, Art Holmes and Eber Bailey. Dinner was served by Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Caskey.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lighthart at 305 Sturtevant Drive were: Mr. Lighthart's nephew Ward Lighthart, Mrs. Lighthart and their children, Owen, Betty, Loree and Barbara, of North Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gurney of Paris, France, were guests at the J. M. Campbell home on Saturday of last week. Mr. Gurney is Manager of the American Express for France and Spain but they are looking for a location for a future home in this vicinity.

Daylight Robberies Net Big Hauls In Two Local Homes

Burglaries in Sierra Madre are becoming bolder and bolder, it seems. Two daylight ransacking of homes here Wednesday afternoon netted the robbers more than $175 in jewelry and cash, according to the police report.

Sometime between noon and 4:15 o'clock the home of Fred Griebenow at 10 E. Miramonte was entered through a window and a wrist watch, bracelet and knife totaling $55 were taken. Between 2 and 4:30 the same day burglars entered the home of W. H. Morrow on West Central got away with $122 in cash from savings banks, currency and jewelry.

A short time ago a hold-up man took $20 from the purse of Mrs. Randolph on her front porch and numerous other residents of Canyon Park report prowlers frightened away.

Plant Trees To Conform With Scheme

Planning Commission Asks
Property Owners for Cooperation

With the advent of spring which is surely in the air these lovely days, we realize that everyone interested in "growing things" is susceptible to "spring fever" and we sympathize with those desiring to beautify the city as well as their own premises. To that end the City Planning Commission is working and wishes to cooperate with anyone desiring to plant street trees.

Official trees for certain streets have been named and must be planted on those streets. On other streets cognizance is taken of large trees already growing and trees which are desirable and fairly uniform in type are used to fill in.

We desire to remind property owners of the city ordinance making it unlawful for any one to remove from or plant in the parkings, without the permission of the city council. This is in the interest of uniform planting which makes for a beautiful and orderly city.

The planning commission meets the second Tuesday of each month at 7:45 p. m. at the City Hall and will gladly confer with any person and group of persons wishing to improve the appearance of their streets.

City Planning Commission,
S. E. OSGOOD, Secretary.

Four Square Gospel Campaign to Start Here Next Sunday

A Four Square Gospel campaign, conducted under the auspices of Angelus Temple of Los Angeles, will be started in Sierra Madre at the Woman's Club House next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to Evangelists L. G. Stearns and Paul Shipman, who were here this week making arrangements for the opening of the revival.

Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Almee Semple McPherson, will open the meeting the first night. There will also be present Mrs. McPherson's two children, Roberta Semple and Ralph McPherson. Other special speakers will be procured from time to time. Special musical numbers will be provided each evening.

The plans are to continue the campaign for two to four weeks. After the services are well started the intention is to have street meetings if arrangements can be made satisfactorily, the evangelists in charge state.

Lecturer from India To Speak Here on "Oriental Christ"

"Ghandi and the Oriental Christ Movement" will be the subject of an address to be delivered at the Congregational Church next Wednesday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 o'clock by Manilal C. Parekh, noted author, lecturer and educator of India.

His viewpoint of Christianity, wherein he fearlessly stresses the spirit rather than the organization of religion is said to be most refreshing and winsome, coming from an oriental.

The Students League of Many Nations which appeared at this church Wednesday evening of this week, was greeted by a capacity audience that thoroughly enjoyed the experiences of these young missionaries in training, as they appeared in their native costumes of 16 different lands.

Annual Meeting Largely Attended and Reports
Are Read

The annual membership meeting of the Sierra Madre chapter of the American Red Cross was held Monday, Jan. 27, at the city hall with Chairman W. R. Humphries presiding. Annual reports were made by the following officers and chairmen: Mr. Humphries, who outlined the very creditable amount of work accomplished during the year by the chapter as a whole; Mrs. M. D. Welscher who reported on her Braille work for blind veterans; Mrs. Fred Griebenow, who told of the large amount of work accomplished by her production committee in the way of garments and hospital supplies; Mrs. R. M. Barker, welfare chairman, who explained how food supplies, clothing and other articles were furnished where needed, and mentioned 21 investigations found necessary; Miss Steinberger, who reported on the remarkable work turned out by the school children in Junior Red Cross activities; R. O. Calkin, home service chairman, who reported investigations concerning veterans, and Mrs. W. C. Gruitt, secretary, and H. Clay Reavis, treasurer, each of whom made brief reports.

The following officers and chairmen and officers will serve for the coming year: W. R. Humphries, chairman; Mrs. W. C. Gruitt, secretary; H. Clay Reavis, treasurer; Mrs. H. H. Holland, production chairman; Mrs. R. M. Barker, welfare work; Miss Steinberger, Junior Red Cross; Ralph Stewart, home service.

Plans are already under way for various activities for the coming year—another swimming campaign, another first-aid class; another traveling Christmas celebration for the shut-ins; systematic social calls among the large number of shut-ins; completion of the skeleton plan formed by the disaster committee, and other activities as the need arises.

The key note of the Sierra Madre chapter is community service and any suggestions along that line are always welcomed. The following is an extract from a letter written by the editor of the Red Cross Courier: "I want to express my gratitude for the photograph and the information as to your Red Cross traveling Christmas Tree. It is so thoroughly fine. You may look forward shortly to the reproduction of the photograph and the printing of a story to accompany it in 'The Courier.' Even a month after Christmas I will confess that it just made me glow with a renewed spirit."

Fraibergs Jewelry Moves Merchandise To New Location

Announcement is made this week elsewhere in the News that Fraiberg's Jewelry Store is moving to the new store room just one door north of J. F. Sadler & Co. on Kersting Court.

Everything will be in readiness for business in the new location on Saturday, February 1, according to Henry Greger, proprietor, who has operated this store for the past five years in the old location at 18 West Central. For three years previous to that the business had been conducted under other management at the same place.

Free souvenirs are offered by Mr. Greger for the opening day and a warm welcome will be extended to all visitors. The new room, in a brand new building built last summer by Mr. Kersting, offers larger space, says Mr. Greger, for expanding both the jewelry and the optical business which is operated in connection. The store is well lighted and is in a central location where Mr. Greger believes he can offer better service and better display of his merchandise.

Earl J. Lynde, city engineer and superintendent of streets and water department of Sierra Madre, will bring his wife here February 10 and they will occupy the new house just being completed at 100 East Highland Avenue.

Mrs. C. H. Robinson of Hollywood entertained as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Seal B. Robinson of Glendale, Mrs. E. F. Read, Miss Doris Read, Mrs. Myrtle Read Angle and C. R. Angle, of Sierra Madre.

ANNUAL TRAIL CLIMB PLANS MORE ELABORATE THAN EVER BEFORE

Plans are practically complete for a "bigger and better" Mt. Wilson Trail Climb than ever held before. This is an annual affair sponsored by Phil Hartman of Orchard Camp, and this year the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce has increased interest in the event by offering a handsome cup for the sweepstakes trophy.

The race will start in front of the Sierra Madre News office Saturday, March 15, and end at Orchard Camp, covering a distance of approximately 4 miles over old Mt. Wilson Trail. It is open to all amateur hikers, with "flights" for all ages and both sexes.

Council Will Save Money On Pipe Line

Rejects Bids As Too High and Will Have Work Done Locally

Consistent with their policy of an economic administration, the City Council of Sierra Madre at Wednesday night's meeting rejected all bids for installing some 50,000 lineal feet of water pipe. The decision was reached after City Engineer, Earl J. Lynde had reported that the bids ranged from $33,000 to $85,000 and that the proposals did not include installation of fire hydrants and service connections as prescribed in the form provided the bidders.

Mr. Lynde stated, furthermore, that his own estimate of the work of installing the pipe runs approximately $5,000 lower than the lowest bid received, and that his department could also save the city some $3,000 additional for engineering fees, supervision and inspection. Moreover, this money can be spent to give Sierra Madre men work and furnish quite a substantial payroll to the city for several months.

In view of the fact that Paul E. Kressly, consulting engineer for the city, reports that approximately 87 per cent of the pipe now in use in the city water system is either old or of insufficient size to supply adequately the requirements of the city if it continues to grow according to predictions, the Council is inclined to curtail to the limit any unnecessary expense either in installation or operation of the city's water system.

Legion Auxiliary To Observe Fifth Anniversary Soon

On February 12, the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will have completed their fifth year as an organization. The next meeting, Thursday, February 13, will be a social meeting, in honor of the event. After a short business meeting, in unit headquarters, the members will go to the home of Mrs. A. T. Evans, 529 Ramona. All members are urged to remember this date. There will be no more notices of meetings sent by the secretary, but notice of meetings will be printed in the Sierra Madre News calendar of stated events.

At the last meeting of the Auxiliary, January 23, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger resigned as representative of the Unit to the Chamber of Commerce. President Blanche Reule appointed Mrs. Ora Olsen to replace Miss Steinberger. The Auxiliary is very anxious to obtain a piano for their new quarters, and ways and means by which one can be obtained are now being worked out.

Girl Reserves Will Hold Cooked Food Sale on Saturday

The Congregational Girl Reserves will hold a "cooked food" sale Saturday, February 1, at Solary & Davies grocery store, corner of Baldwin and Central. The sale will start at 8:30 and continue until the food is sold out. The proceeds will be used to pay the expenses of three delegates to the mid-winter conference of Girl Reserves to be held at Riverside, February 14, 15, 16.

Talking motion-pictures are proposed by a minister to swell the attendance in the churches. Maybe one plan might be to offer a course of golf lessons on Sunday mornings.—Palm Beach Post.

Black-Miller Wedding Is Impressive

Unusual Ceremony Performed in Presence of Relatives and Friends

Popular Local Couple Will Make Home Here After Trip East

One of the most impressive as well as unusual marriage ceremonies of the Sierra Madre social season was performed at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, Jan. 28, when Mrs. Inez Black of Pasadena became the bride of Thomas Miller, Jr., of Sierra Madre, at the Masonic Temple, 200 South Euclid Avenue, Pasadena, in the presence of 500 relatives and friends.

Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller, 265 N. Mountain Trail, and is one of the successful and popular young business men of this community, being part owner and manager of the Sierra Madre Ice Company, in which capacity for the past few years he has made many friends by his pleasing personality. Mr. Miller has taken an active part in Masonic affairs here and is a member of the Blue Lodge and Knights Templar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gilmore of Pasadena, a graduate of Lorena Academy and Draughon's Business School of Springfield, Ill. For some time she has been bookkeeper for Mr. Miller and through her pleasant manner has already established many friends in Sierra Madre who will welcome her as an integral part of the community life.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home here after an extended honeymoon to Florida and Cuba.

The ceremony was directed by Artaban Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, of which the bride is a member, and was one of the few such ceremonies ever performed in this state. The double ring service was used and the ceremony was performed by the chaplain of the Knights Templar, Judge W. M. Northrup of Alhambra, before an altar of white in the east, banked on either side with palms, thru the courtesy of the Pioneer Nursery of Monrovia.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Pauline Byrne sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "All For You" and at the close "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Hazel Nutt at the piano. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mrs. Nutt, as the flower girl, Nelladean Lucille Green, appeared, followed by Lolita Rose McCool and Anna Marguerite Orme bearing the rings on old gold satin cushions.

The bride was given away by Edward Gaugar, watchman of the shepherds. The queen's attendants in the White Shrine, who attended the bride, wearing gowns in pastel shades and carrying arm bouquets of sweet peas and shepherdesses' staffs tied with tulle and sweet peas, formed an aisle thru which passed the bridal party to the altar.

The bride was attractively gowned in desert fan satin and wore an ecru lace-trimmed tulle veil to match, held to her head by a duchess lace cap. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses, lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns. She was attended by Miss Elsie Miller, sister of the bridegroom, who wore coral silk crepe and carried pink roses, cream sweet peas and maidenhair ferns.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Miller proceeded to the west where they received their friends. A family reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Boys to Conduct Paper Drive For Class Finances

The boys of the seventh grade of the Congregational Church will stage a paper drag during the next two weeks to raise funds for the work of their Sunday School class. Anyone having old papers to dispose of will confer a favor on the members of the class by calling Black 234 and leaving word.

The play to be given soon by the boys and girls of the class, which is taught by Mrs. W. H. Brauman, is progressing nicely, and the date of presentation will be announced soon.

The Glad Column

By EARL MOYER
Member of California and American Gladiolus Societies.

This is the second of a series of talks on Gladiolus, what they are, how they grow, how to grow them, the care of, and various other things that go to help each and every one to have a real garden of these beautiful flowers.

May I suggest that you cut these articles out each week and keep them in a book? In this way you will have a complete set of authentic articles on the subject.

HOW DOES THE GLAD GROW?

What happens to the corm we carefully plant right side up in our well prepared garden late in April, or early May. Root and top growth start almost simultaneously and if the ground has been correctly prepared a luxuriant growth of roots will quickly form. If the ground is hard or bakes after a rain, root growth is seriously restricted but the top growth will proceed. The resultant plants are frequently weak and the spike, if any, will be poor.

The growth of the top is most interesting. When the leaf blades reach a height of six or eight inches the base of the stock swells just above the corm. This is the beginning of the new corm which most of us do not see till digging time in the fall, and at that date the corm which we planted is scarcely recognizable—it is little more than a dried up mass of old roots at the base of the old corm.

The story of the growth of this little corm forming at the base of the six-inch leaf sprout is important, for it gives us the key to the successful culture of those enviable glads which our good neighbor can always produce to such perfection.

Almost before we know it the plants have reached a height of 12 to 15 inches. If we dig up such a plant and examine it closely we will find that the new corm has reached quite a size, possibly an inch in diameter and that it is throwing out new root-like organs.

In another short space of time the plant reaches 18 to 24 inches. Examination will show that the new bulb is now as large as the one planted and that in addition to the half dozen thick, fleshy roots we noted last time, there is a multitude of fibrous feeding roots.

Before you know it the flower spike is pushing up through the leaves and a cormel or two has formed at the base of the new corm.

Some June morning we take a stroll into our garden and find that our Glads are in bloom. It seems a shame to pull one up but perhaps in cutting a spike we pull a little too hard and up it comes. The new bulb looks quite plump and handsome and now has quite a respectable colony of cormels forming at its base. The corm we planted seems to be pinching and looks a bit shabby. By digging time in October the story is almost complete. We have nice large corms, lots of cormels and scarcely more than a memory of the corm which we planted. What would happen if we could only let the bulbs grow for another month or two? Plant a few indoors about March 15 and transplant them when you set the rest of your corms. In other words give them an extra six weeks. From experience it is found that the corms bloom earlier, in June instead of July, and some even in May. The plants were not dug till November. We found the corms double the usual thickness and cormels that were almost No. 6 corms, though they were not many more in number.

All this of course means that the critical period of growth is when the plants are 12 to 24 inches in height. At this time an additional set of roots is forming. Under favorable conditions this root growth is rapid and profuse soil, food and water are conveyed to the growing plant very rapidly. The flower spike develops, the new corm enlarges and finally the cormels form. Do not be afraid to give your Glads one or two good soakings during the month of July. Be sure the job is done thoroughly and that the ground is wet to a depth of four to six inches. Watering need not be too frequent but must be thorough, for best results. It is believed that commercial fertilizers are more valuable at this period of growth than at any other time. They should be applied in moderate amounts and well worked into the soil.

Next week, "The Culture of the Gladiolus."

Mt. Wilson Trip Pleasant at This Season of Year

A motor trip to the summit of Mt. Wilson at this time of year is a particularly enjoyable one. According to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club, it is easily accessible from Los Angeles and neighboring points and can be made comfortably in from two to two and one-half hours.

From Los Angeles the best route is by way of Highland Park and Pasadena and thence north through Altadena and over Northhill Boulevard to the Mount Wilson road toll house. There is a charge of 25c for each vehicle and 25c for each person. The road is smooth, but narrow and very scenic. The grades average 10 per cent and at no point are motorists urged to take chains as the recent storms have made the road muddy. On Sundays and holidays this road is under control, going up, from daylight until 1:00 p. m. and from 5 p. m. until 5:30 p. m. Machines enter the upper control, coming down from 3 p. m. on. From this point 5886 feet in elevation, a beautiful panoramic view taking in twenty-two cities and towns and valleys below, is a great attraction to visitors. The famous Mt. Wilson Solar Observatory is also open to visitors at specified hours. Mt. Wilson is only twenty-four miles from the heart of Los Angeles.

THE OBNOXIOUS BILLBOARD

NO blots upon the landscapes so detract from their beauty as the large billboards now so common thruout the state. No objections of like size are so offensively obtusive, for their commercial value is supposed to depend upon their conspicuousness and therefore they are rudely thrust before one's eyes close to the highway, too often at places of greatest natural beauty. It really seems that the well-balanced business man would recognize that this prostitution of our choicest landscapes is offensive to all who travel and would find more respectable and more acceptable means of advertising his wares. It is quite certain that if all bill boards were removed business would not in the least suffer, and in this day of heavy motor car travel, the advertiser certainly offends more than he can possibly please.

Sporadic agitation against these ingeniously-placed disfigurements has occasionally been in evidence for many years, but the advertiser who now places his ear to the ground may hear the increasing road of an on-coming troop of zealous workers who are thoroly awake to the necessity of ridding our fair state of these blots which are the basis of more complaints from visiting tourists than any and all other material disfigurements that deface our world-famous natural scenery. Already municipal banishment is being visited upon the worst of these offenders and organizations of various kinds have taken the work in hand. Many improvement societies are listing the names of those who so advertise and are asking them to discontinue their patronage of billboards. Others are listing and refusing to buy of the offenders. No business can be promoted by improper means and the number of those who will not patronize billboard advertisers is growing rapidly and time, which levels all things, may be trusted, aided by organized effort, to bring about the reaction which will recall such advertisers to their senses. Less obtrusive methods of advertising will bring better results and our motorist will not longer be driven almost to distraction through the blotting out of views of our richest landscapes.—E. B. in The California Cultivator.

No man, Kiwanian or not, can excuse himself for not doing good works because of lack of money. The most important of all such work is of a personal rather than a financial nature. A word of sympathy, a bit of helpful understanding, goes much further than an open purse or a free-writing check pen. (The Kiwanis Magazine.)

WHERE IS SECURITY?

"SECURITY" still seems the sole subject that will interest the statesmen gathered at the London Conference. What does "security" mean, and how is it to be attained?

Germany, almost wholly disarmed since 1918, sings no "Security" song! Europe's minor nations—Scandinavians, Swiss, Flemish, Dutch, etc.—though virtually unarmed as compared with France, appear to suffer no such anxiety as to their security. The maxim, "If you want peace prepare for war" has been long overlooked, and resulted miserably in debt and disaster. That General Grant's dictum still holds good: "Nothing has ever been settled by war that could not have been settled without it; and, if after, why not before?"

Another American president proposed something better, a reconstitution of world society on a basis of harmonious co-operation, and reference of international differences to a Permanent Court of Justice. Such a Court has been established and no nation has gainsayed its decisions.

More recently, in France's very capital, a most impressive array of world statesmen solemnly signed the Pact of Paris, or Kellogg Pact, binding every nation to OUTLAW War; never to take part therein, except in self-defense. Obviously with no aggressor no War!

Furthermore, France and her allies pledged themselves at Versailles to reduce their armaments after Germany disarmed.

Beyond all these verbal pledges to disarm arises the compelling fact that the battlefield of Future will be in the air, the latest development being the Dornier flying boat, competent to carry 25 tons of high explosives or poison-gas compounds. What "security" can frontier forts, battleships, or millions of armed men offer against a nocturnal attack on Paris or London by an air fleet so equipt?

SWEARING ON THE RADIO

THE famous Henderson of Shreveport, Louisiana, who swears through his own radio broadcasting station, may yet become the direct cause of bringing about repressive measures to regulate some of the wild and careless individuals who pollute the ether. The Radio Commission has told Congress that it possesses no power of censorship and that it can not stop anyone who is using profanity or making other improper use of broadcasting.

Senator Dill does not agree that the Radio Commission is so powerless. He proposes to follow up the evil which has been emphasized by the bad behavior of Henderson and he will seek to secure legislation that will protect the public and increase the wonderful possibilities of radio broadcasting.

Canyon Park Notes

Henry Gierlich, special engineer and Ralph S. Brooks of the Gierlich office in Monrovia, met with members of the Canyon Improvement Association road committee and residents on Tuesday morning to discuss details of the road paving project.

Matters pertaining to curbs, gutters, drainage on Woodland Drive, garages and trees affected on the street, curves, acquisition, the fill on Sturtevant Drive, and many other angles of the situation were presented for consideration. Mrs. W. B. Corum, president of the association, James C. Heasley, chairman of the road committee, Councilman H. Clay Reavis and Lester K. Layton, residents on Sturtevant Drive, W. C.

Refreshments of popsicles were served to the children by Robert C. Hartzell at 619 Woodland Drive, where the feeding of his pet squirrels was also enjoyed.

Some fifteen unique letters, sent by Miss Wones from the children on Monday, expressed warm thanks and appreciation to Mr. Hartzell for the treat, and contained a hope to return again at some future date. The young letter writers were signed: Frances, Page, Ida Mae, Junior, Teruko, Thomas, Norman, Alfredo, Marilyn Paschall, Betty Koon, Betty Anderson, Otilia Trejo and Dorothy Wilson.

Ravening and Laura E. Cadmus, were among those who made a survey of the field.

Thursday of next week is the regular meeting night of the Canyon Improvement Association. Mrs. W. B. Corum, the president, urges a full attendance as a number of matters of importance to lot owners will be discussed. The meeting will be held at the Corum store on Sturtevant Trail.

Twenty children of 3-B language work class of the local school were given an outing in Canyon Park last Friday afternoon. They were accompanied on the trip by their teacher, Miss Helen Wones.

A German authority advocates the use of treated wood as food, which wouldn't, however, dispose of the board bill.—Weston Leader.

YEAR after year, for seven years Atwater Kent has led the field... longer than most manufacturers have been in business... and longer than most of them stay.

This continued leadership has not been one of chance or accident. It is the result of continually building a radio better than the rest, honestly represented and serviceable.

The lengths to which Atwater Kent engineers have gone in this patient pursuit of perfection has been made possible through the freedom of Atwater Kent policies.

Unhampered by stockholders' demands... dictates of capital... personally directing, owning and controlling the world's largest and finest radio factory... using the most scientific and modern manufacturing methods and principles... changes and improvements are made as soon as they are proven, regardless of cost or other issues that hold back the rest.

That's why Atwater Kent radio is the pioneer... "the one that goes before!" It has earned, deserves and holds the laurels of leadership.

That's why you can always buy an Atwater Kent radio knowing that you're buying the best... and for less... a radio far in advance of others.

The Literary Digest is worried lest long skirts will increase traffic accidents, because the women can't move with their accustomed freedom of limb, but we believe that hazards will be offset by the men having their minds set more on driving than formerly.—Ohio State Journal.

Long Skirts Here To Stay, Declares Paris Dressmaker

Jacques Worth, the great Paris dressmaker and arbiter of the world's fashions, is in America. He says the longer skirt and normal waistline are here to stay, but he adds, that the new vogue is not meant for street or sports wear.

This leading style authority, grandson of the founder of the Paris firm of Worth, historic in haute couture, says, however, that the American woman is not only taking the long skirt too seriously but has greatly exaggerated it in many cases wearing it at the wrong time and in wrong places. For daytime wear, for most occasions, fourteen inches from the bottom of the hemline to the ground is the correct length, he says.

"Moderation has become the mode in women's fashions," says Monsieur Worth, who is not only an artist but a physician, considering health as well as beauty in his designs. "Longer skirts, higher waistlines and a decided swing from the angular flapper form to the naturally rounded form reflects the trend toward a new normalcy and appeal in feminine styles."

"The modern figure is no longer rigidly proportioned. The new silhouette is, above all, natural. The softly-flowing curves and delicate feminine appeal are as much a part of women today as their post-war mannishness was part of women of yesterday. And fashion follows the figure as trade follows the flag."

"The history of fashion shows no short skirts until the world-war. The historians of style find its origin in the need of women for more freedom of movement in doing men's work. Short skirts were necessary during the war, so they came. They were easier to make and women were content to pattern themselves on an artificial masculine mode of straight lines."

"Today, however, a new spirit dominates the sphere of women's fashions. The pendulum of style has swung back to a new moderation and the return to a more feminine figure is a decided step on the road of beauty and health. Austere qualities have gone by the board; mannish clothes are out of fashion; extremes no longer hold sway."

Double Fee Charged For License Plates After February 1

Final warning was given California motorists Wednesday by the Division of Motor Vehicles that applications must be filed for 1930 license plates. Beginning Saturday of this week all who have failed to apply either by mail or at the counters will be required to pay a double fee. In other words, the cost of passenger license plates will be $6 instead of $3. The cost of plates for commercial vehicle will mount in a corresponding ratio. In addition to the penalty, tardy motorists are subject to arrest under the motor vehicle act.

Big Meeting for Elks

This is one of the outstanding meetings of the year and an extra program of entertainment is a feature. Also on this occasion there will be a big turkey dinner at 6:30 p. m. All visiting Elks will be cordially welcomed.

Health Dept. Urges Use of Vaccination

Smallpox and Rabies Increase In County During Last Month

Rarity of Diphtheria Cases Due to Success of Campaign in Schools

Small pox and rabies in Los Angeles county increased in prevalence during the month of December according to a report of Dr. G. H. Roth, director of the bureau of communicable disease control of the county health department, and need the immediate cooperation of the public if the high standard of public health in the county is to be maintained.

More extensive use of the vaccination services offered by the county health department clinics would be of definite aid in diminishing the prevalence of these diseases in the county, Dr. Roth states. The harmless treatment of animals, especially all dogs, with rabies vaccine would reduce the danger of rabies among humans to a minimum. The report shows that almost a score of persons are at the present time taking the Pasteur treatment as a result of dog bites received last month. Rabies is almost always fatal, the report explains, unless treatment is administered early.

Citizens are urged to confine all suspicious animals and to notify the county health office of any instance of a person being bitten by a dog, cat or goat, and of the location of the animal. The careful preservation of the heads of animals killed while acting strangely will assist the county health department laboratory in making diagnosis more easily and more certain.

The present increase in such respiratory infections as colds, influenza and pneumonia is expected for this time of the year, the report shows.

The two cases of tetanus which occurred in county health department territory last month were attributed to the failure of persons to have puncture wounds treated immediately and to receive immunizing antitoxin.

Diphtheria, chicken pox, measles and scarlet fever incidence are reported to be below seasonal expectancy. The comparative rarity of diphtheria in the county Dr. Roth attributes to the success of the campaign of county health officials and school nurses in securing the cooperation of parents in immunizing their children with toxin-anti-toxin.

The majority of other communicable diseases is well below normal.

50 horsepower six-cylinder engine

Not until you drive the new Chevrolet Six can you appreciate what a wonderful improvement has been made in its famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine. With its capacity increased to 50 horsepower, it has great reserve energy for sweeping up the steepest hills—for swift acceleration—and for sustained high speeds. Its power flows evenly and smoothly. And it is extremely flexible in traffic. In fact—it does everything you could possibly want a motor to do. Yet it is remarkably economical in its use of gasoline and oil. Come in today for a demonstration.

Woman's Club Notes

Executive board members and officers of the Woman's Club were entertained at luncheon on Wednesday by Mrs. Wm. Lees.

Mrs. W. E. Walker and Mrs. Ethel R. Davis, at the home of the latter, 145 San Gabriel Court.

The day was spent in going over plans in detail for the Wistaria Fete, and on work of the thousand sachets being made for the festival. 100 of the sachets were completed on Wednesday.

At a short business session, Mrs. Ralph Solary was appointed by the president, Mrs. John H. Robertson, to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Mrs. C. E. Sommer on account of ill health.

Those present were Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Wm. H. Wolf, Miss Edna R. Green, Mrs. H. B. Hersey, Mrs. W. R. Humphreys, Mrs. N. B. Hutton, Mrs. Frederick S. Ackley, Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain, Mrs. Elmer A. Green, Mrs. Fred Griebow, chairman of the art section, and the hostesses.

All club women are invited to attend a tea at District Headquarters, 2103 South Hobart Boulevard, in Los Angeles, Tuesday, February 4 from 2 to 4 p. m., honoring Mrs. Sippel, general federation president from Washington, D. C.

A plan is being outlined by the Garden and Community Service sections of the club whereby plowing of lots for gardens to be shown during the Wistaria Fete, can be done at half the usual price. The more lots plowed, the cheaper the cost will be to the owners, according to announcement made by Mrs. John H. Osgood, acting chairman in the absence of Mrs. A. A. Halsey, who has been called to Palo Alto owing to illness of her mother.

The itinerary during the Fete will include gardens on Central, Baldwin, Auburn, Carter, Lima and Alegria Avenues, as well as others, when it is the plan to include a sketch of city streets with the list of gardens to be shown visitors who may either drive by or visit these gardens in person. A list of suggested plants, which have a fair chance of blossoming during the Fete if planted now from well-started nursery stock, was given in last week's issue of this publication in the club column.

All those desiring lots plowed will please communicate with Mrs. John H. Osgood (Red 77) or Mrs. W. C. Gruit (Green 265). The tours will not be confined to gardens of club members.—Laura E. Cadmus, press chairman

HAZEL JANE FARNDALE BITTEN BY DOG

Mrs. R. W. Stewart received a letter this week from Mrs. Jas. Farndale, now of Las Vegas, Nevada, and until a recent date a resident of Sierra Madre, stating that their 7-year-old daughter, Hazel Jane, was seriously bitten by a dog at Christmas time. The dog was tied with a long rope, but Hazel Jane and her brother coming home from school, were knocked down and the little girl bitten to the bone on both legs. The dog did not have rabies but at the hospital infection followed and a serious time has resulted. Mr. and Mrs. Farndale were active here in church and Legion circles.

Mmes. Tarr, Burbank, Corlett and Miss Gleim assisted in entertaining in their homes the young men from the Bible Institute of North Binghamton, N. Y., after the meeting at the Congregational Church Wednesday night. Miss Gleim entertained Mr. Penn from China and Ortego, a Navajo Indian, of California.

JONES FAMILY LEAVES ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones and daughter, Virginia, left Monday on their motor trip "a-gypsying" for an indefinite period. They were forced to return after their first departure because of an attack of flu. San Diego was their first stop, and probably Carlsbad will be visited soon. Mrs. A. A. Halsey, who was to have accompanied them, was unable to do so because of the illness of her mother.

"Armoured Train" Begins Two Weeks Run in Pasadena

"The Armoured Train, Number 1469" by Vsevolod Ivanov, will open Thursday for a run of two and a half weeks at the Pasadena Community Playhouse.

This famous play in the Russian Theatre is having its first production in this country in Pasadena. In fact the only English scrip in the world is that possessed by Gilmor Brown who ordered the translation done.

The settings of this remarkable production are done by another Russian, Janis Muncis, who created the beauty of "The Blue Bird," "Julius Caesar" and other noteworthy plays of the past year and a half.

Gilmor Brown plays the roll of Vershinin, the leader of the peasants in the revolution of Russia in 1918. He leads the huge crowd of peasants from one gigantic scene to another until the last when he meets the leader of the aristocracy, Nezalosov, who dies standing by his conception of right and wrong although the side of the peasants is inevitable.

This production is one of the big productions of the year at the Playhouse.

Sierra Madre Boy Has Lead in Class Play at Junior Hi

"The Trysting Place" will be one of the plays presented by the Graduating Class of Wilson Junior High, January 31, 8 P. M., at the Lamada Jark Woman's Club House.

The play is a combination of petty love affairs, humorously portrayed.

The characters are: Lancelot Briggs, a young man who is nervously in love with a woman about six or seven years his elder. This part is played by Ruden Weiss of Sierra Madre, the lady being Eva Galloway.

Mrs. Briggs, (Jennie Graham) Lancelot's mother, is a widow apparently annoyed by a fat, loving, old gentleman, Mr. Ingoldsby, played by Lindsay Greigg.

The third couple of love-makers will be Jessie Briggs, alias Dorothy Aspy and a young man despised by her mother, Rupert Smith (Robert Bascom).

Other members on the program will be another play, "Manikin and Minikin." The school orchestra under the direction of Mr. Theodore R. Gundry, and Roland Gundry, a seven year old talented violinist.

Alimony works out all right. The less a woman deserves it, the more it is worth to be rid of her. — Asheville Citizen.

Mission to Start Feb. 16 at Church Of the Ascension

At the Church of the Ascension, Baldwin and Laurel Avenues, the week of February 16 will be offered a fine opportunity for everyone to learn about the historic Faith of Christendom, and to deepen the spiritual life. Father Joseph, O.S.F., the Missioner, will be able to give, thru the Question Box and the Instructions, accurate and full information on the Church's teaching, her Sacraments, her Prayer Book, and her life in the world. To those who are interested in the great evangelical Franciscan Order, Father Joseph can give first-hand inspiration.

Many will be glad to hear about the world-wide Third Order ("in the world but not of the world") which accepts lay people who may continue their ordinary life and work while guiding it by the rule of frugality, moderation, piety and prayer so characteristic of this great way of life.

This great Mission—daily from the 16th to the 23rd of February—is a time to ask, to seek to learn, to understand the practices of the Ancient Faith.

The Holy Eucharist will be pleaded daily at 7:30 and 10 (Sundays at 7:30 and 11) and the Mission service daily (except Saturday) at 7:30 p. m. Attend the Mission!

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

The usual practice last Friday included a try-out of our new pump. Altho it can be carried by one man, this pump is capable of throwing a large volume of water. It also is able to produce a lot of noise. When standing near by while the pump is running, one must yell in the other fellow's ear to make himself understood. And then sometimes a misunderstanding occurs. For instance, George Cox said to Louie Karger: "I'm liable to work out in the wet tonight." "Oh, chess," said Louie, "Der whole punch will be dere." "What do you mean?" asked George. "Didn't you said, you said, you'd be in der sout vest tonight?" answered our hero. "You can tell where your mind is," popped Cox.

After learning that Truck No. 2 (the Goat) was about past going, the discussion at our meeting included the subject of building another to replace it. The majority agreed that they tho't it could be done, so there be it—it will probably be done.

Standing corrected, Bob Babbitt furnished the feast instead of Piccolo Pete last Friday evening. The feed was extra fine and too bad that our entire police force and a few extra firemen were interrupted in the midst of their pleasant pleasure. A hurry call to the corner of Grand View and Baldwin to suppress an encounter, the participants of which were supposedly in monstrous anger, and dangerous to each other's health. Chief Richards answered the phone and immediately designated the place and said: "A fight!" Dropping his two sandwiches, the chief made a dive for the steps with Police Chief McMillan and his entire force following. Two or three of our able bodied firemen also felt that a good fight would be worth seeing. They also started, but did not throw down the eats. However, there was not a battle at said corner and after the town was scoured from end to end, no clue was found, and the boys returned without a mark of battle. Very mysterious; very, very mysterious.

A fireman bold, was getting old. Quite old enough to pension; His hair was gray, he'd had his day

At standing at "attention." His pension came, he'd quit the game,

They told him to retire. So he agreed to sit and read

Before his own home fire. The siren blew, and out he flew

As in the days of old—Once a fireman, never retireman, A fireman brave and bold.

It's a strange thing about these "rhymes," they're hard to start and hard to finish. Anyway, the Fire's Out!
